Seventh Annual Earth Day Celebration at the Chino Creek Wetlands and Educational Park

Chino, CA - The Inland Empire Utilities Agency will be co-hosting, along with the City of Chino and the Santa Ana Watershed Association, an Earth Day Celebration at the Chino Creek Wetlands and Educational Park on Wednesday, April 16, 2014 and Thursday, April 17, 2014. The Earth Day Celebration will be open to schools that have scheduled field trips between 9 a.m. and 2 p.m. on Wednesday. The Earth Day Celebration will be open to the public on Thursday between 4 p.m. and 7 p.m.

The event promotes environmental awareness to the community and provides ways for the community to take action and support environmental stewardship. It will include environmental exhibits, free giveaways, hands-on earth-friendly activities, environmental show performances, and much more.

“The Annual Earth Day Celebration is an opportunity to reach out to the community and offer ways to protect the environment. It is a time where one can learn about the earth’s precious natural resources and how to practice efficiency and sustainability,” stated Inland Empire Utilities Agency Board President Terry Catlin.
